Sentencing handed down Youngstown gas station shooting

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (Tuesday, February 28, 2023) – 45-year-old Jaques K. Peterman-Oliver was sentenced for his involvement in the death of 36-year-old Cameron Dyer.

Peterman-Oliver entered a guilty plea to several charges, including, Voluntary Manslaughter (Felony of the first degree) with a firearm specification and Having Weapons While Under Disability (Felony of the third degree).

In August of 2022, Peterman-Oliver shot Dyer outside a gas station on Logan Avenue after a confrontation. Peterman-Oliver shot Dyer several times. Peterman-Oliver then hauled Dyer into his vehicle before driving away. Peterman-Oliver took Dyer to the Youngstown Police Station where Dyer was pronounced dead.
