Man pleads guilty in shooting death of Boardman man

(YOUNGSTOWN, OHIO) – 38-year-old Robert Weaver pled guilty to involuntary manslaughter. Weaver was responsible for the 2022 shooting death of 22-year-old Lamar Reed. Weaver pled guilty to the following charges related to Reed's death:

- Involuntary Manslaughter (Felony of the first degree)
 - 3-year Firearm Specification

In February of 2022, police were called out to Donald Ave on the west side for a homicide. Once on the scene the victim was identified as Reed, who was found with several gunshot wounds. After a 5 month investigation, the Youngstown Police Department identified Robert Weaver as the suspect, and he was indicted in July of 2022. On March 29th, 2023, after pleading guilty, Weaver was sentenced to 15.5-21 years behind bars. In a separate case, Weaver also pled guilty to Vehicular Assault that injured two people in 2020.
